Pulso brings a sense of calm to the bedroom. The timeless design focuses on rest and relaxation. The Pulso bed with its extravagant headboard creates a striking contrast to the plain lacquered surfaces of the wardrobes and is certainly the eye catcher in the room. Smart lighting solutions on the bed and wardrobe provide beautiful ambient lighting. For a warmer, cosier look, simply choose Pulso in natural oak or core walnut.

Version: pure white lacquer, width of the wardrobe approx. 3.0 m

The Pulso bed is a masterpiece in many ways. Its elliptical headboard and simplistic bed frame give it an almost floating appearance. The headboard with integrated socket is ideal for storing a tablet or smartphone. Indirect lighting offers a cosy atmosphere in the bedroom.

01 The elegant side table featuring a ceramic table top perfectly repeats the design lines of the bed.

02 Pulso bed with elegant arched supports.

03 Pulso bed with pure white or anthracite powder-coated legs. A clever design feature: a corner joint links the two bed sides – in white for lacquered beds and in contrasting anthracite for beds in wood versions.
